The aim of this observational and experimental blog is to grasp the medial potential involved in tweeting as a writing practice. Read as these two meet and develop something that will grow. And it is not so much the mobile device itself but their ubiquitous access to the Internet that makes the difference to what people use their devices. Aside from thousands of books with eye-catching covers and content, your peepers will be drawn to the small art gallery section where selected local talents get to display their works. He was one of the monsters in my childhood dreams, dreams in which a figure much like him chased me across wide veldts and over jagged hills to the edge of precipices; dreams in which I felt myself tripping, slipping, falling-only to awake to the shame of having peed again in bed, the piss still warm, quickly turning cold.
